Incident: Robbery

Location: 4400 Ashford Dunwoody Rd

Date: 111609

The Dunwoody Police are investigating a robbery that occurred in the parking lot of Perimeter Mall on November 16, 2009 at 10:40 pm. The investigation has revealed that the victim's were followed from the Apple store, located within the mall, to the parking lot where a black male approached the victims and took their laptop. Further review of surveillance video reveals an additional suspect acting as an accomplice.

The first suspect is described as a black male in his twenties, approximately 5'07, 130-150 lbs wearing a black zip up sweatshirt, blue jeans and black shoes. This suspect left behind a black ball cap with gold stripes and the letter "P", possibly Pittsburgh Pirates. The second suspect is a white or light skin Hispanic male wearing blue jeans, black sweatshirt with white lettering and wearing a baseball hat. He is also believed to be in his twenties.

If you can identify this suspect or have any information in this case, please contact
Detective Curtis Clifton at (678)382-6912.
